

A Game of Intersections

We wanted to quickly intersect your day with this Game of Intersections. Below are some tips and rules that you may find helpful for Rally Day. If you already know them, then at least you can solve the puzzle it contains for practice! Locate the games or sports that form within and between words below. We have done the first one as an example.

Sentence

Game/Sport

Stay Alert! The game's fast tempo loses many.

Polo

We will give you each, essential information to read on Rally Day morning.

If we are blabbing on about rules that morning, please bear with us.

If a puzzle contains a (rare) mistake, notify us immediately.

Be sure to glimpse both ways before you stroll across every street.

When at a sign location, do not poke Road Rallyers.

The winner of PRRR #34 is determined by points, and not by hand ballots.

If you win PRRR #34, come to the front, take a bow, linger a bit, then sit back down.